Campaign Spending: List of Filers

As a candidate for Mayor of the County of Maui, my primary objective is to restore trust in government. Toward this end, my candidacy will focus on a delivery of leadership guided by three basic principles: Personal integrity, Political principles, and Performance.

Personal integrity is the consistent application of fairness, dignity and respect in the conduct of a public official toward the citizens and leaders of our community. I pledge to maintain the highest level of personal integrity as your Mayor.

Political principles of right and justice will require an understanding of the powers and responsibilities of our local government as defined in our County Charter, and the ability to gather factual information through comprehensive research. I pledge to propagate sound political principles in my leadership as your Mayor.

Performance is the ability to get the job done by motivating the people of our County to fight to protect and preserve our fragile environment, to enhance the public health and safety, and to improve our quality of life. I pledge to exercise sound political principles and personal integrity in the performance of my duties as your Mayor.

With these guiding principles, along with the ability to effectively communicate and work with our elected and appointed State and Federal officials, the private sector, and nonprofit organizations, I believe my candidacy provides the most positive and comprehensive leadership choice for Maui County into the year 2010.

I ask for your vote.
